Anastasia Bucsis, RBC Olympian

Anastasia was born in Calgary, a year after the 1988 Olympic Winter Games, and considers herself a product of the Olympic legacy that the Games left. She started speed skating at the age of 4, and since her breakout season in 2009, has completed in 46 World Cups, 6 World Championships, and 2 Olympic Games. Anastasia unfortunately had to prematurely retire in the winter of 2017 because of a chronic knee injury. After graduating with a Communications degree from the University of Calgary, she now works for CBC Sports and helps create Olympic content for digital and broadcast platforms. Anastasia is extremely passionate about mental health and LGBT issues both on and off the field of play.

RBC® sponsors amateur sport, from grassroots programs in local communities to national sport associations and elite-level athletes. Since 1947, RBC has been Canada's longest-standing supporter of the Canadian Olympic Team.
