Brady Leman, RBC Olympian

Brady knows what it takes to overcome obstacles in sport. He successfully returned from 3 separate fractures in his legs, including a heartbreaking injury the day before competing at the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Games, to win his first World Cup back from injury. Since then he has consistently been the top-ranked Canadian male on the Ski Cross World Cup, highlighted by two Gold medals, including a win on Canadian soil in 2012 at Blue Mountain in Collingwood, Ontario. Most recently Brady became the 2016 X Games Champion which is a great setup leading in to the 2018 Olympic Games where he hopes to compete for Canada.

RBC® sponsors amateur sport, from grassroots programs in local communities to national sport associations and elite-level athletes. Since 1947, RBC has been Canada's longest-standing supporter of the Canadian Olympic Team.
