Jacqueline Simoneau, RBC Olympian

Jacqueline won a pair of gold medals at the 2015 Pan American Games, standing atop the podium in the team and duet competitions and qualifying for the Olympic Games in the duet event. Jacqueline first joined the national team in 2012 when she was still a junior competitor. That year she won a bronze medal in the solo event at the FINA World Junior Championships. Jacqueline moved up to the silver medal position at the 2014 World Juniors. She made her senior FINA World Championship debut in 2013, competing in the team events, after which she also began competing in the solo and duet events. Getting to compete at the Olympic Games is one of Jacqueline's many life goals. She made her Olympic debut in Rio in 2016, finishing seventh in the duet event.
