James Lavallée, RBC Olympian

James has been kayaking for nine years and is currently a carded athlete on Canada's Sprint Canoe Kayak Team. James has represented Canada at two Junior World Championships and has won several medals at National Championships. He has also competed in two Canada Summer Games earning three medals for Manitoba in 2017. As James continues to develop in the sport, he remains determined to wear the maple leaf at the 2020 and 2024 Olympics Games. James is very proud of his Métis heritage and loves to spend time outdoors. James is currently pursuing a Bachelor of Science at the University of Manitoba, where he hopes to major in Ecology and minor in Environmental Science.
