Lanni Marchant, RBC Olympian

Lanni grew up the middle of seven children and started out in sport as a figure skater. Her love for running developed as she transitioned from running laps of the skating arena parking lot to laps of the track. She holds dual law degrees from the University of Ottawa and Michigan State, and is a licensed and practicing criminal defense attorney. Lanni describes her passion for the law as an important part of her life, providing balance to the training demands of competitive distance running.

RBC® sponsors amateur sport, from grassroots programs in local communities to national sport associations and elite-level athletes. Since 1947, RBC has been Canada's longest-standing supporter of the Canadian Olympic Team.
