Lizanne Murphy, RBC Olympian

Lizanne started with Canada Basketball in 2005 and retired in 2017 after having competed at both the London and Rio de Janeiro Olympic Games. She played over 150 international games with the Senior Women's Team and won gold medals at both the Pan American Games in Toronto and the FIBA Americas championships in 2015. She has played professionally in Europe for 11 seasons: in Finland, Lithuania, Slovakia, Poland and six years in France. In France, she was named MVP of the league in 2015 and sportswoman of the year for her region in both 2014 and 2015. Prior to playing professionally, Lizanne studied Biology at Hofstra University in Hempstead, New York. There she graduated with Honours and excelled on the court, breaking numerous university records. Now freshly retired from basketball, Lizanne is excited to rejoin her family and friends in Montreal and jump back into the community.
