Max Flinn, RBC Olympian

Max, from Chester, NS, has a strong background in youth sailing. He has represented Canada many times in his sailing career, most notably at the 2012 ISAF Youth Sailing Worlds in Dublin, Ireland, where he still holds the best finish in Canadian history. Max transitioned into the 29er in 2013 after the Youth Worlds. After competing in the 29er for two years, participating at two Canadian Championships and the World Championship, he made the switch to the 49er. In the 49er Max has had the opportunity to join the national team and compete at the Olympic qualification event in Miami, Florida. Max is currently working towards his goal of competing at the 2019 Pan Am Games.

RBC® sponsors amateur sport, from grassroots programs in local communities to national sport associations and elite-level athletes. Since 1947, RBC has been Canada's longest-standing supporter of the Canadian Olympic Team.
