Michelle Toro, RBC Olympian

Michelle was born in South Africa and moved to Canada with her family when she was six years old. She started swimming when she was eight with the North York Aquatic Club. She later earned an NCAA scholarship and graduated with a Bachelor of Exercise Science from Ohio State University. Michelle joined the national team in 2014 at the age of 23 and has since won medals internationally at the Commonwealth Games, Pan American Games, World Short Course Championships and Olympic Games. Michelle is currently a nursing student at the University of Toronto with plans to graduate in 2019. She lives with her husband, Guillermo, and new dog, Waldi, in Toronto.

RBC® sponsors amateur sport, from grassroots programs in local communities to national sport associations and elite-level athletes. Since 1947, RBC has been Canada's longest-standing supporter of the Canadian Olympic Team.
