Pierce LePage, RBC Olympian

Pierce is a decathlete who grew up outside Toronto in Whitby, Ontario. Starting track and field when he was 17, Pierce had a breakout year in 2015 when he broke the junior national record for decathlon. Since then, he has become a member of the national team, won the RBC Training Ground for Toronto, won two international medals and become the 2017 National Champion. Pierce plans on competing at the 2018 Commonwealth Games, 2019 World Championships and 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo. Pierce loves video games and is a huge advocate of eSports.

RBC® sponsors amateur sport, from grassroots programs in local communities to national sport associations and elite-level athletes. Since 1947, RBC has been Canada's longest-standing supporter of the Canadian Olympic Team.
