Tyler Mislawchuk, RBC Olympian

At 22 years of age, Tyler is the youngest member of the Canadian National Team, and races in the Elite Men's Division. His love of sport started at a young age playing year-round hockey, soccer, baseball and track. It wasn't until high school, age 16, that he fell in love with the sport of triathlon and has been committed ever since. Tyler recently made his Olympic debut at the 2016 Rio Olympic Games where he was the youngest competitor in the race. Tyler feels this is only the beginning and will continue to train for the next Olympic Games in Tokyo in 2020.

RBC® sponsors amateur sport, from grassroots programs in local communities to national sport associations and elite-level athletes. Since 1947, RBC has been Canada's longest-standing supporter of the Canadian Olympic Team.
