Kristina Groves, RBC Olympian

A native of Ottawa, Kristina started skating when she was 11 and continued in the sport for 23 years – 12 of which were spent on the Canadian National Team. Throughout her career, Kristina captured an impressive number of World Cup, Olympic and World Championship medals. Kristina retired from speed skating in 2011, and is now a graduate student at the University of Calgary studying Sustainable Energy Development. Kristina also works for CBC as a speed skating analyst alongside Steve Armitage, and is a passionate supporter and active athlete ambassador for Right to Play.

RBC® sponsors amateur sport, from grassroots programs in local communities to national sport associations and elite level athletes. Since 1947, RBC has been Canada's longest-standing supporter of the Canadian Olympic Team. RBC is also a premier sponsor of Hockey Canada.
