Trevor Hirschfield, RBC Olympian

Trevor's favourite moment as an athlete was during the 2008 Paralympic Games in Beijing. He looked up in the crowd to find his family and they all shared a moment while the bronze medal was placed around Trevor's neck. Trevor continues to compete for Team Canada in wheelchair rugby and was recently named team Captain in 2013. Outside of rugby, he is working towards his Marketing Degree and improving his culinary skills. Trevor lists the Detroit Redwings and Oakland Athletics as his favourite sports teams.
