Martha McCabe, RBC Olympian

Martha grew up in a sports-loving, athletic family that paved the way to competitive sport for her. After high school she moved to Vancouver to study Kinesiology at UBC and train with Hungarian breaststroke specialist coach Jozsef Nagy. Martha claimed her first international medal at the 2011 World Championships. In 2012 Martha placed 5th in the Olympic final, just shy of her goal of a podium finish. She is now training hard in hopes to compete for Canada at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games. She loves to travel, hang out with friends and spend time up at her parents' cottage on Stoney Lake.

RBC® sponsors amateur sport, from grassroots programs in local communities to national sport associations and elite level athletes. Since 1947, RBC has been Canada's longest-standing supporter of the Canadian Olympic Team. RBC is also a premier sponsor of Hockey Canada.
