Caroline Calvé, RBC Olympian

Caroline's athletic career started at the late age of 22 when she picked up a new sport and decided to start competing in alpine snowboarding. After growing up on skis, alpine snowboarding felt natural to her. Caroline was inspired by watching the Torino 2006 Olympic Winter Games, and in 2010, her dream of becoming an Olympian came true in Vancouver at the Olympic Winter Games. Caroline is now preparing for her second Olympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia. She is excited to live the Olympic experience once again and is looking forward to putting all her hard work to the ultimate test.
