

Effects of Rising Gas and Food Prices on Budget

- I comparison shop for food more than before
- I tend to follow a budget more than before - I buy less on impulse
- I use my vehicle less, I make less trips and/or use public transit/walk more
- I don't use my credit card to pay for day-to-day expenses as much as before
- There has been no impact on my budget

How are you dealing with the effect rising gas and food prices are having on your day-to-day budget? B.2
