

The majority of Canadians feel that the amount of money they will need for a comfortable retirement is a very important factor in deciding when to retire

QB4. There are many things that people consider when they decide it is time to retire. Using a scale of 1 to 10, How important were each of the following considerations when you were planning when you would retire?/when you think about when you will retire?... 'Determining the amount of money that you need in savings or investments in order for you to have a comfortable retirement': Top 3 responses (8, 9, 10).

Base: All respondents (n=1200)

*Small sample size: please use caution

Canadians also place high importance on determining their health care needs when they retire.

QB4. There are many things that people consider when they decide it is time to retire. Using a scale of 1 to 10, How important were each of the following considerations when you were planning when you would retire?/when you think about when you will retire?... 'Determining potential health care requirements': Top 3 responses (8, 9, 10).

Base: All respondents (n=1200)

*Small sample size: please use caution

Half of Canadians expect to use some of their retirement savings to pay for health care.

QG5C. Do you expect to have to use some of your retirement savings to pay for healthcare? Responses of 'Yes'.
Base: All respondents (n=1200)

*Small sample size: please use caution

Canadians who are not yet retired have far higher expectations about the amount of money they will need for their retirement.

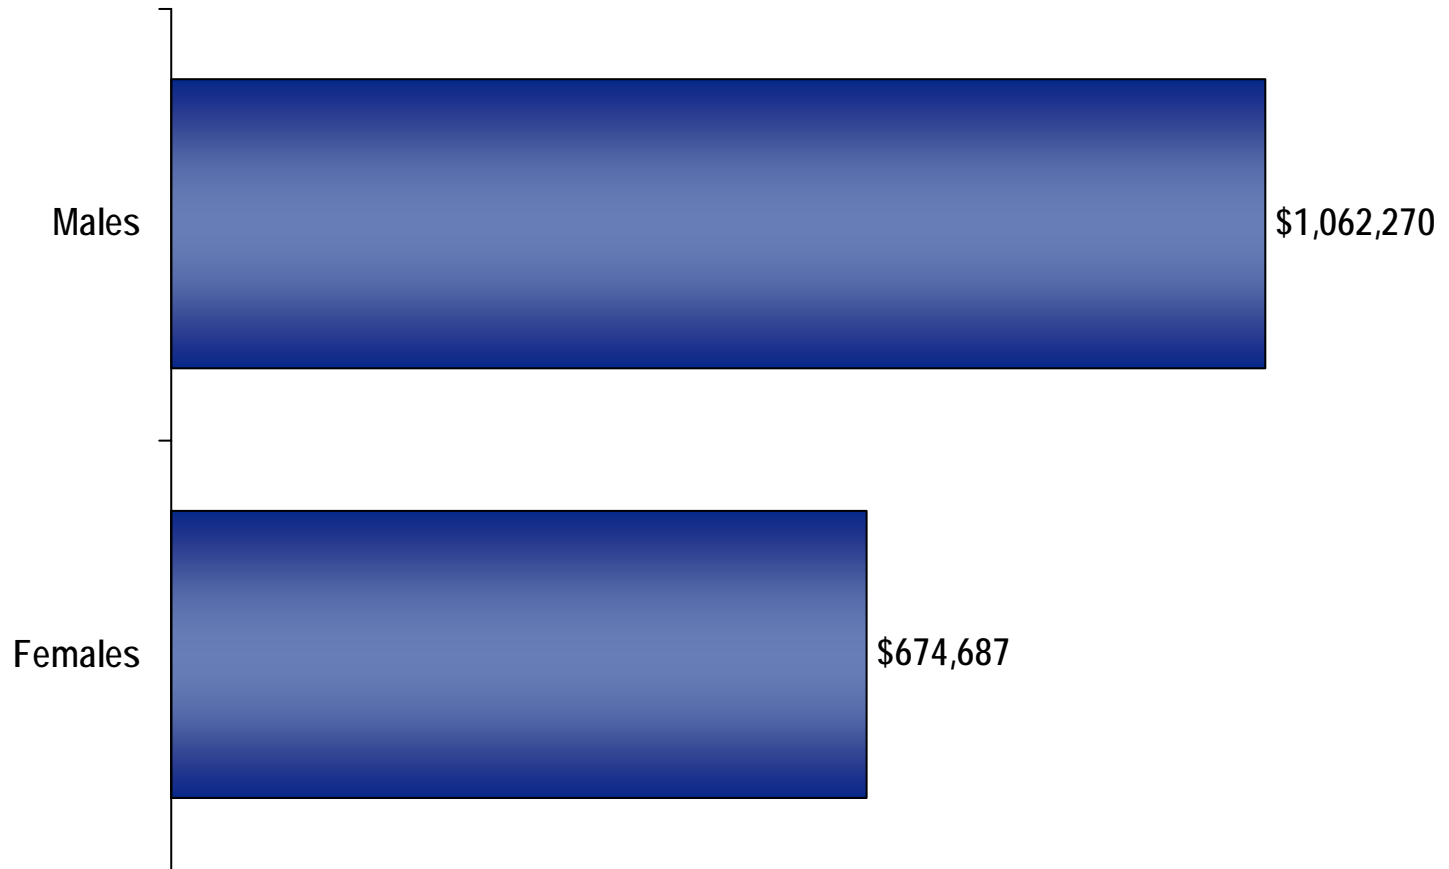

QB6A. And what amount did/do you think you need to have saved in order for you to have a comfortable retirement?
Base: Respondents who had/have determined the amount of money needed for retirement (n=582)

Among those who have not yet retired, men's expectations about the amount of money they will need for their retirement is higher than that of women.

QB6A. And what amount did/do you think you need to have saved in order for you to have a comfortable retirement?
Base: Respondents who have not yet retired and who have determined the amount of money needed for retirement (n=387)

