Carla's Bio:

Carla's six years on the Canadian National Women's Ice Hockey Team have been filled with highlights, including winning Gold Medals at the 2006 and 2010 Olympic Winter Games as well as placing first at the 2006 Four Nations Cup and 2007 World Championships. Recently retired, Carla is excited about pursuing other avenues within hockey and gaining new experiences outside of the sport.

Athletic Goals:

I have accomplished my dreams as a hockey player, but now I'm thinking it would be fun to go down a different avenue within the sport. I would love to try colour commentary and also pursue coaching and see how that goes. Even though my days as a player are over, there are still goals within the sport I'd like to achieve.

Favourite Olympic/Sporting Moment:

Winning Olympic Gold on Canadian soil is simply indescribable, but also watching the other Canadian athletes compete so well in Vancouver was incredibly inspiring!

Best Advice You've Ever Received:

The Olympic Games don't define you; they are just one piece of who you are. Dare to be you.
